

Week 1: 7th May – 11th May

MONDAY:
TUESDAY: Find out the dates of your tests and write them in your journal!
WEDNESDAY
THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY
SUNDAY

- You have four weeks before the tests begin.
- Make sure your plan covers all subjects over the four week period.
- Take short breaks.
- Revise in slots of 30-45 minutes.
- Tell your parents that you are revising and ask them to help test you.

Week 2: 14th May – 18th May

MONDAY:
TUESDAY: Make some mind maps to check what you have revised so far
WEDNESDAY
THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY: Sit under the shade at your garden table with your revision notes!
SUNDAY:

- Consolidate your exercise book notes into shorter notes (cue cards, mind maps etc.).
- Fill in any gaps in learning that you have missed.
- Ask for help: check things you don't understand with your teacher.
- Revise with others and test each other.
- Cut down time spent on other commitments e.g. hobbies and going out.
- Revise the topics you find hardest first, not those that are easy for you!

Week 3: 21st May – 25th May

MONDAY: Eat your breakfast each day; think of your body as a car, without fuel it can't get anywhere!
TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY
THURSDAY: Keep that thinking cap on, even if you are feeling tired!
FRIDAY
SATURDAY
SUNDAY

I must do my revision
 I must do my revision
 I must do my revision
 I must do my revision
 I must do my revision

