Letter [H]

Dear Parents,

I do hope this letter finds you well.

- Please don't forget our termly levy of £30 per family. Your help and support in this would be deeply appreciated.
- Tomorrow, on Friday 10th November we have, with the kind support and permission of Father Quentin OFM, our Mass for the Fallen at 8.30am in St. Thomas of Canterbury Church where the Last Post will also be sounded. At 11.00am on the same day we will have two minutes silence for those who lost their lives in the great conflicts of our age.
- Year 11 Mocks begin in the hall on Monday 13th November.
- On Tuesday 14th November we have a Work Experience Parent's Evening at 7.00pm in the Ratcliffe Hall, Upper Site. At the same time a Telco Evening is being staged in St. Joseph's House. Parents be warned! Parking is at a minimum and Mr Cantwell has kindly persuaded the friars to allow visitors to use St. Thomas of Canterbury car park at the top of the road. I do implore drivers not to park over our neighbour's driveways.
- On Thursday 16th November will be a non-uniform day. Students may wear sensible non-uniform in return for a fee of £1.00. All proceeds to the School Fund.
- A member of our community is looking for a professional, skilled cabinet maker. If any parent knows of such craftsmen, would you please contact my PA Mrs Sally Parry as soon as possible: sally_parry@fc.tchs.uk.net

I thank you for reading this.

Best wishes.

Kindest regards,

Dr P.C. Doherty OBE
