Dear Parents & Students,

Letter [J]

I hope this letter finds you well as we move towards the end of the term.

- I must warn all pupils that there will be a special focus on discipline, attendance and punctuality during these last weeks of the term. We also insist on excellent conduct whilst commuting on buses. Most of these now carry cameras so those who cause disruption can be identified. Transport for London have banned certain students from travelling, that must not happen here at Trinity.
- Please remember that school will close early at 3.00pm on Wednesday 6th December so staff can prepare for our Prospective Sixth Form Open Evening.
- Friday 8th December, of course, is the feast of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady, there will be school Masses during the day.
- Wednesday 29th November will be a non-uniform day. Students may wear sensible non-uniform in return for a fee of £1.00. All proceeds to the school fund.

Many thanks for reading this.

Kindest regards,

Dr P.C. Doherty OBE
